1. All the applicants are proposed respondents who have preferred these applications.

All the applicants have the licences issued by the Market and Health Department and it is issued and renewed every year by the Health Officer of the Surat Mahanagar Palika (SMC). Though the applicants have legal and valid licences, the action of respondent authorities directly allegedly infringe the fundamental rights of the applicants. It is alleged that the SMC has sealed the shops despite the applicants having valid licences and during the sealing process, no valid show cause notice has been issued by the SMC. It is submitted that in catena of judgments, Hon'ble Apex Court has held that the right to eat any food is part of right to life and personal liberty under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. It is further submitted that large number of shopkeepers, who are in the business of chicken meat shops are almost destroyed. It is submitted that not only that due to this sudden sealing process, without proper verification of licences of shopkeepers, huge loss is caused to the entire poultry industry and severe financial loss is suffered and, therefore, they have collectively approached this Court with a prayer to allow these applications by ordering joining the proposed applicants as party respondents.
