(4) When a required person is at any of the Remote Points mentioned in sub-rule(3) and video conferencing facilities are not available at any of those places, the concerned Court shall formally request the District Judge, in whose jurisdiction the

Remote Point is situated to appoint a Coordinator and to provide a video conferencing facility from proximate and suitable Court premises.

(5) The Coordinators at both the Court Point and Remote Point shall ensure that the recommended requirements set out in rule 4 are complied with, so that the proceedings are conducted seamlessly.

(6) The Coordinator at the Remote Point shall ensure that-

- (a) all Advocates or a required person scheduled to appear in a particular proceeding is in proper attire and ready at the Remote Point designated for video conferencing at least thirty minutes before the scheduled time;
- (b) no unauthorised audio or video recording device is used for recording the proceeding in any manner;
- (c) no unauthorised person enters the video conferencing room when the video conference is in progress; and
- (d) the person who is examined is not prompted, tutored, coaxed, induced or coerced in any manner by any person and the former does not refer to any document, script or device without the permission of the concerned Court during the course of examination.

(7) Where the witness to be examined through video conferencing requires or if it is otherwise expedient to do so, the Court shall give sufficient notice in advance, setting out the schedule of video conferencing and in appropriate cases may transmit non-editable digital scanned copies of all or any part of the record of the proceedings to the official e-mail account of the Coordinator of the concerned Remote Point designated in accordance with sub-rule (3).

(8) The Court shall transmit to the e-mail of the Coordinator at Remote Point non-editable digital scanned copies of the documents submitted under section 173 of the Cr.P.C. (or any part thereof) which may be necessary for examination of the witness for his reference during such examination.

(9) Before the scheduled video conferencing date, the Coordinator at the Court Point shall ensure that the Coordinator at the Remote Point receives certified copies, printouts or a soft copy of the non-editable scanned copies of all or any part of the record of proceedings which may be required for recording statements or evidence, or for reference which shall only be permitted to be used by the required person with the permission of the Court.

(10) Whenever required, the Court shall order the Coordinator at the Remote Point or at the Court Point to provide -

(a) A translator in case the person to be examined is not conversant with the official language of the Court;

(b) an expert in sign languages in case the person to be examined is impaired in speech and hearing; and

(c) an interpreter or a special educator, as the case may be, in case a person to be examined is differently abled, either temporarily or permanently.

Chapter III

Procedure for Video Conferencing

6. Application for appearance, evidence and submission by Video conferencing.- (1) Any party to the proceeding or witness, except where proceedings are initiated at the instance of the Court, may move a request for video conferencing.

(2) A party or witness seeking a video conferencing proceeding shall do so by making a request in Form I.

(3) Any proposal to move a request for video conferencing should first be discussed with the other party or parties to the proceeding, except where it is not possible or inappropriate, in cases such as urgent applications.

(4) On receipt of such a request and upon hearing all concerned persons, the Court shall pass an appropriate order after ascertaining that the application (especially where it is filed for recording evidence) is not filed with an intention to impede a fair trial or to delay the proceedings.

(5) While allowing a request for video conferencing, the Court may also fix the schedule for convening the video conferencing.

(6) In case the video conferencing event is convened for making oral submissions, the order may require the Advocate or required person to submit written arguments and precedents, if any, in advance on the official e-mail ID of the concerned Court.

(7) Costs, if directed to be paid, shall be deposited within the prescribed time, commencing from the date on which the order convening proceedings through video conferencing is received.

7. Service of Summons.- (1) Summons issued to a witness who is to be examined through video conferencing, shall mention the date, time and venue of the concerned Remote Point and shall direct the witness to attend in person along with proof of identity or an affidavit to that effect.

(2) The existing rules regarding service of summons and the consequences for non-attendance, as provided in the C.P.C., the Cr.P.C. or by any method prescribed by the High Court of Orissa, from time to time, shall apply with respect to service of summons for proceedings conducted by video conferencing.

8. Examination of persons.-

(1) Any person who is examined, including a witness shall, before being examined through video conferencing, produce a proof of identity by submitting an identity document issued or duly recognized by the Government of India, State Government, Union Territory, or in the absence of such a document, an affidavit attested by any of the authorities referred to in section 139 of the C.P.C. or section 297 of the Cr.P.C., as the case maybe.

(2) The affidavit shall, inter alia, state that the person who is shown to be the party to the proceedings or as a witness, is the same person who is to depose at the virtual proceeding.

(3) A copy of the proof of identity or affidavit, as the case may be, shall form part of the record and the same will be made available to the opposite party upon request.

(4) In cases where identity proof of the witnesses appearing through video conferencing is otherwise readily available on record to the satisfaction of the Court as well as of the Coordinator of the remote point (such as photographs provided by Police at the time of filing chargesheet etc.) then the proof of identity of the witness may not be insisted upon at the Remote Point.

(5) The person who is examined, shall ordinarily be examined during the working hours of the concerned Court or at such time as the Court may deem fit.

(6) The oath will be administered to the person who is examined by the Coordinator at the Court Point.

(7) Where the person who is examined, or the accused to be tried, is in custody, the statement or, as the case may be, the testimony, may be recorded through video conferencing.

(8) The Court shall provide adequate opportunity to the under-trial prisoner to consult in privacy with their counsel before, during and after the video conferencing.

(9) Subject to the provisions for examination of witnesses contained in the Evidence Act, before the examination of the witness, the documents, if any, sought to be relied upon shall be transmitted by the applicant to the witness, so that the witness acquires familiarity with the said documents.

(10) The applicant shall file an acknowledgment with the Court in this behalf.

(11) If a person is examined with reference to a particular document, then the summons to witness must be accompanied by a duly certified photocopy of the document and the original document should be exhibited at the Court Point in accordance with the deposition of the concerned person who is examined.

(12) The Court shall be at liberty to record the demeanour of the person who is examined and while recording the evidence of a witness through video conferencing, the Court shall adhere to the procedures prescribed under the law.

(13) The Court shall obtain the signature of the person being examined on the transcript once the examination is concluded and the signed transcript shall form part of the record of the judicial proceedings.

(14) The signature on the transcript of the person who is examined shall be obtained in either of the following manner, namely:-

(a) If digital signatures are available at both the concerned Court Point and Remote Point, the soft copy of the transcript digitally signed by the presiding Judge at the Court Point shall be sent by the official e-mail to the Remote Point where a print out of the same shall be taken and signed by the person being examined;

(b) a scanned copy of the transcript digitally signed by the Coordinator at the Remote Point shall be transmitted by official e-mail of the Court Point and hard copy of the signed transcript will be dispatched after the testimony is over, preferably within three days by the Coordinator at the Remote Point to the Court Point by recognized courier or registered speed post:

Provided that where digital signatures are not available, the printout of the transcript shall be signed by the presiding Judge and the representative of the parties, if any, at the Court Point and shall be sent in non-editable scanned format to the official e-mail account of the Remote Point, where a printout of the same will be taken and signed by the person examined and countersigned by the Coordinator at the Remote Point;

(c) a non-editable scanned format of the transcript so signed shall be sent by the Coordinator of the Remote Point to the official e-mail account of the Court Point, where a print out of the same shall be taken and shall be made a part of the judicial record and the hard copy would also be dispatched preferably within three days by the Coordinator at the Remote Point to the Court Point by recognised courier or registered speed post.

(15) An audio-visual recording of the examination of person examined shall be preserved and an encrypted master copy with hash value shall be retained as a part of the record.

(16) The methodology to be followed in carrying out this work shall ordinarily be as per the advice of the System Officer or System Assistant, as the case may be.

(17) The Court may, at the request of a person to be examined, or on its own motion, taking into account the best interests of such person to be examined, direct appropriate measures to protect the privacy of such person bearing in mind the aspects such as age, gender, physical condition and recognized customs and practices.

(18) The Coordinator at the Remote Point shall ensure that no person is present at the Remote Point, except the person who is examined and those whose presence is deemed necessary by the Coordinator for the proceedings to continue.

(19) The Court may also impose such other conditions as are necessary in a given set of facts for effective recording of the examination (especially to ensure compliance with clause (d) of sub-rule (6) of rule 5).

(20) The examination shall as far as practicable, proceed without interruption or the grant of unnecessary adjournments:

Provided that the Court or the Commissioner, as the case may be, shall be at liberty to determine whether an adjournment should be granted, and if so, on what ground.

(21) The Court shall be guided by the provisions of the C.P.C. and Part B of Chapter XXIII of the Cr.P.C., the Evidence Act and the IT Act while examining a person through video conferencing.

(22) Where a required person is not capable of reaching the Court Point or the Remote Point due to sickness or physical infirmity, or presence of the required person cannot be secured without undue delay or expense, the Court may authorize the conduct of video conferencing from the place at which such person is present and in such circumstances the Court may direct the use of portable video conferencing systems and the Court may give authority to the concerned Coordinator or any person as the Court deem fit.

(23) Subject to such orders as the Court may pass, in case any party or person authorized by the party is desirous of being physically present at the Remote Point at the time of recording of the testimony, such party shall make its own arrangement for appearance or representation, as the case may be, at the Remote Point.

(24) Where the proceeding of the Court is conducted by Video Conferencing, the Court shall specifically mention the same in the top of the ordersheet.

9. Exhibiting or showing documents to witness or accused at a Remote Point.- If in the course of examination of a person at a Remote Point by video conferencing, it is felt necessary to show a document to the person, the Court may permit the document to be shown in the following manner; namely:-

(a) if the document is at the Court Point, by transmitting a copy or image of the document to the Remote Point electronically, including through a document visualizer; or

(b) if the document is at the Remote Point, by putting it to the person and transmitting a copy or image of the same to the Court Point electronically including through a document visualize and the hard copy of the document counter signed by the witness and the Coordinator at the Remote Point shall be dispatched thereafter to the Court Point by authorized courier or registered speed post; and

(c) as far as exhibiting material objects through Video Conferencing is concerned, the Court may adopt such procedure as it deems fit and proper having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case without causing prejudice to any of the parties.

10. Ensuring seamless video conferencing.- (1) The required person shall address the Court by video conferencing from a specified Remote Point on the date and time specified in the order issued by the Court.

(2) The presence of the coordinator shall not be necessary at the Remote Point where arguments are to be addressed by an Advocate or party in person before the Court.

(3) If the proceedings are carried out from any of the Remote Point mentioned in serial numbers (a) to (j) of sub-rule (3) of rule 5, the Coordinator at such Remote Point shall ensure compliance of all technical requirements.

(4) Where the proceedings are conducted from a Remote Point falling in the situation contemplated under serial number (k) of sub-rule (3) of rule 5, the Coordinator so appointed under that serial number (k) for the said Remote Point shall ensure compliance of all technical requirements for conducting video conferencing at such Remote Point.

(5) The Coordinator at the Court Point shall be in contact with the concerned Advocate or the required person and guide them in regard to the fulfillment of technical and other requirements for executing a successful hearing through video conferencing.

(6) Any problem faced by such Remote Users, the Coordinator at Court Point shall resolve the issues and, inter alia, shall also share the link of the video conferencing hearing with such Remote Users.

(7) The Coordinator at the Court Point shall ensure that any document or audio-visual files, e-mailed by the Remote User, are duly received at the Court Point.

(8) The Coordinator at the Court Point shall also conduct a trial video conferencing, preferably thirty minutes prior to the scheduled video conferencing in order to ensure that all the technical systems are in working condition at both the Court Point and the Remote Point.

(9) The Coordinator at the Court Point shall at the scheduled time, connect the Remote User to the Court.

(10) On completion of each day of the video conferencing proceeding, the Court shall mention in the order sheet the time and duration of the proceeding, the software used (in case the Software used is not the Designated Video Conferencing Software), the issue on which the Court was addressed and the documents, if any, that were produced and transmitted online.

(11) In case a digital recording is tendered, the Court shall record its duration in the order sheet along with all other requisite details.

(12) The Court shall also record its satisfaction as to clarity, sound and connectivity for both Court Users and Remote Users.

(13) On the completion of video conferencing, if a Remote User is of the opinion that he is prejudiced due to poor video or audio quality, the Remote User shall immediately inform the Coordinator at the Court Point, who shall in turn, communicate this information to the Court without any delay and the Court shall consider the grievance and if finds substance in the grievance, it may declare the hearing to be incomplete and the parties may be asked to re-connect or make a physical appearance in Court.

11. Judicial remand, framing of charge, examination of accused and proceedings under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C.- The Court shall adhere to the relevant provisions laid down in the Cr.P.C. and GRCO (Criminal) while resorting to Video Conferencing for the purpose of remanding accused persons, recording their statement or the statement of witness and framing charges.

Chapter- IV

General Procedure

12. General Procedure.- (1) The procedure set out hereafter in this Chapter, is without prejudice to the procedure indicated elsewhere in these rules except specific instances in which proceedings are conducted via video conferencing.

(2) The Coordinator at the Court Point shall ensure that video conferencing is conducted only through a designated Video Conferencing Software, and in the event of any technical glitch during the proceeding, the concerned Court may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, permit the use of a software other than the designated Video Conferencing Software for video conferencing in that particular proceeding.

(3) The identity of the person to be examined shall be confirmed by the Court with the assistance of the Coordinator at the Remote Point in accordance with sub-rules (1) to (4) of rule 8, at the time of recording of the evidence and the same must be reflected in the order sheet of the Court.

(4) In civil cases, parties requesting for recording statements of the person to be examined by video conferencing shall confirm to the Court, the location of the person, the willingness of such person to be examined through video conferencing and the availability of technical facilities for video conferencing at the time and place as agreed upon.

(5) In criminal cases, where the person to be examined is a prosecution witness or a Court witness, or where a person to be examined is a defence witness, the counsel for the prosecution or defence counsel, as the case may be, shall confirm to the Court, the location of the person, willingness to be examined by video conferencing and the time, place and technical facility for such video conferencing.

(6) In case the person to be examined is an accused, the prosecution shall confirm the location of the accused at the Remote Point.

(7) Video conferencing shall ordinarily take place during the Court hours: Provided that the Court may pass suitable directions concerning the timing and the schedule of video conferencing as the circumstances may warrant.

(8) If the accused is in custody and not present at the Court Point, the Court shall order a multi-point video conferencing between itself, the witness and the accused in custody to facilitate recording of the statement of the witness (including medical or other expert).

(9) The Court shall ensure that the defence of the accused is not prejudiced in any manner and that the safeguards provided in sub-rule (8) of rule 8 are observed.

(10) The Coordinator at the Remote Point shall be paid such amount as honorarium as may be directed by the Court in consultation with the parties.

13. Costs of Video Conferencing.- (1) In the absence of rules prescribed by the concerned Court, the Court may determine and apportion all the costs of video conferencing as mentioned below:

(a) in criminal cases, the expenses of the video conferencing facility including expenses involved in preparing soft copies or certified copies of the Court record and transmitting the same to the Coordinator at the Remote Point and the fee payable to translator or interpreter or special educator, as the case may be, as also the fee payable to the Coordinator at the Remote Point, shall be borne by such party as directed by the Court.

(b) in civil cases, generally, the party making the request for recording evidence, through video conferencing shall bear the expenses.

(c) apart from the cases specified in clauses (a) and (b), the Court may also make an order as to expenses as it considers appropriate, taking into account rules or instructions regarding payment of expenses to the complainant and witnesses, as may be prevalent from time to time.

(2) It shall be open to the Court to waive the costs as warranted in a given situation.

14. Conduct of Proceedings.- (1) All Advocates, required persons or the party in person to remain physically or virtually present (hereinafter collectively referred to as participants) shall abide by the requirements set forth in the Schedule.

(2) Before the commencement of video conferencing, all participants shall have their presence recorded.

(3) In case a participant is desirous that his face or name be masked, information to that effect shall be furnished to the Coordinator at the Court Point prior to the commencement of the proceeding.

(4) The Coordinator at the Court Point shall send the link or Meeting ID and Room Details through the e-mail Id or mobile number furnished by the Advocate or required person to be virtually present by the Court and once the proceedings have commenced, no other persons shall be permitted to participate in the virtual hearing, except with the permission of the Court.

(5) The participants, after joining the hearing shall remain in the virtual lobby if available, until they are admitted to virtual hearing by the Coordinator at the Court Point.

(6) Participation in the proceedings shall constitute consent by the participants to the proceedings being recorded by video conferencing.

(7) Establishment and disconnection of links between the Court Point and the Remote Point shall be regulated by orders of the Court.

(8) The Court shall satisfy itself that the Advocate or required person that the Court deems necessary at the Remote Point or the Court Point can be seen and heard clearly and can clearly see and hear the Court.

(9) In order to ensure that video conferencing is conducted seamlessly, the difficulties, if any, experienced in connectivity must be brought to the notice of the Court at the earliest on the official e-mail address and mobile number of the Coordinator at the Court Point which must have been furnished to the participant before the commencement of the virtual hearing and no complaint, subsequently, shall be entertained.

(10) Wherever any proceeding is carried out by the Court under these rules by taking recourse to video conferencing, the same shall specifically be mentioned in the order sheet.

15. Access to Legal Aid Clinics or Camps or Lok Adalats or Jail

Adalats.- (1) In conformity with the provisions of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 (39 of 1987) and the laws in force, in proceedings related to Legal Aid Clinics, Camps, Lok Adalats or Jail Adalats, any person who at the Remote Point is in Jail or Prison shall be examined by the Chairman or Secretary of the District Legal Service Authority or Taluka Legal Service Committee or Members of Lok

Adalats before passing any award or orders in accordance with law.

(2) The award or order made under sub-rule (1) shall have the same force as if it was passed by the regular Lok Adalat or Jail Adalat.

(3) A Copy of the award or order and the record of proceedings shall be sent to the Remote Point.

16. Allowing persons who are not parties to the case to view the proceedings.- (1) In order to observe the requirement of an open Court proceeding, members of the public may be allowed to view Court hearings conducted through video conferencing, except proceedings ordered for reasons to be recorded in writing to be conducted in-camera .

(2) The Court shall endeavour to make available sufficient links (consistent with available bandwidth) for accessing the proceedings.

(3) Where, for any reason, a person unconnected with the case is present at the Remote Point, that person shall be identified by the Coordinator at the Remote Point at the start of the proceedings and the purpose of the presence of that person shall be conveyed to the Court and such person shall continue to remain present only if ordered so by the Court.

Chapter V

Miscellaneous

17. Reference to Words and Expressions.- Words and expressions used and not defined in these rules shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the C.P.C., the Cr.P.C., the Evidence Act, the IT Act, and the Odisha General Clauses Act, 1937 (Odisha Act 1 of 1937).

18. Power to Relax.- The High Court may, if satisfied that the operation of any of the provision of these rules is causing undue hardship, by order, dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule to such extent and subject to such conditions, as may be stipulated to deal with the case in a just and equitable manner.

19. Residual Provisions.- Matters with respect to which no express provision has been made in these rules, shall be decided by the Court consistent with the principles of furthering the interests of justice.

20. Rules to override other rules and etc.- Notwithstanding anything contained in any provision of GR&CO (Civil) and GR&CO (Criminal) or in any other Rules or Scheme for the time being in force, the provisions of these rules shall prevail wherever Court Proceedings are held through Video Conferencing.
